IS OF GREAT VALUE

DR. TAYLOR EMPHASIZES IMPORTANCE OF CONFERENCE.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED

Ample Provision Made for Entertaining the People and the Normal Building to be Open to Them.

The Rural Community Life Conference to be held at the Normal auditorium next Wednesday, promises to be a most successful affair. The following is a statement issued Saturday by President Taylor of the Normal:

To Editor of Democrat-Forum: May I call special attention of our people of Nodaway county to the program of the Rural Community Life Conference? I believe it will be readily seen that this program is a very strong and interesting one. Rarely have our people had so good an opportunity to hear so many interesting subjects discussed by leading experts.

I believe that the Conference may be made of great value to this section of the state. This is the busy time for farmers especially, but it will pay them well to give one day to a subject that is possibly of greater moment than any other before the American people. May I urge them to come and bring their wives? There will be ample hitching racks on the Normal campus and provision for spreading lunches. The Normal building will be open for the comfort of all who come. Let us make this day, June the 5th, a signal occasion for the town and for the county and Northwest Missouri.

The Governor will be the guest of all our people at that time and everybody will want to hear him at night on a subject that has engaged much of his attention.

In addition to the good program of speeches throughout the day and evening, there will be interspersed some excellent music. Come and bring your neighbor. With a cordial invitation to all, I am

Very truly yours,
H. K. TAYLOR
President.

LADIES' BAND PLEASED THEM

Veterans Took Off Their Hats and Gave Them Three Rousing Cheers Decoration Day.

The veterans of the G. A. R. and the members of the Womans' Relief Corps, and everybody else, were delighted with the music that was given for the Decoration Day services, both at the Christian Church, where the declamatory contest was held, and in the court house yard, where the cenotaph ceremonies were held. At the church the Maryville Ladies' Band, of which Miss Alma Nash is director, gave one number, a march, and Mrs. F. P. Robinson sang the Star Spangled Banner, both fitting preludes to the declamations given, "Barbara Fritchie," and "Sheridan's Ride" that were given by Miss Meriam Holt, Ernest Moore and Edgar Hull.

At the close of this program the crowd that had filled the church to its capacity, went to the court house yard and listened to one of the best patriotic speeches ever held in Maryville, by Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. Church.

The Ladies' Band gave four National airs, "Hail Columbia," "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," "Red, White and Blue" and "The Star Spangled Banner." By request of the soldiers "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was repeated, after which the soldiers took off their hats and gave the Maryville Ladies' Band three cheers, and the color bearer gave the Old Glory extra waves. He had kept time to the music all the time the girls were playing.

The band was sent to Reuillard's cafe for luncheon after the exercises by the G. A. R. and the Womans' Relief Corps.

On Visit to Brother.

George Hodge of Chicago, arrived in Maryville Saturday morning and is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Walton, living west of Maryville.

BOX CAR BROKEN INTO.

At Conception Junction Friday Night and Shoes and Clothing Were Taken.

A box car on the sidetrack of the Chicago Great Western was broken into Friday night at Conception Junction and several boxes of goods were broken into. Several pairs of shoes and some clothing were taken, and evidently, the party or parties, sorted the goods out, as clothing and shoes were scattered all over the car. The goods were for the Costello Mercantile Co., and the Ritchie store at the Junction.

Many robberies of box cars have taken place at Conception Junction and it looks as if the best way to check it, is to have a night watchman in the yards.

County Court Monday.

The county court will meet Monday in regular session. There is not much business to come up. Several road cases will be called. The court will probably make their annual trip to the asylum at St. Joseph to see if the county patients are taken care of.

OPENING SESSIONS

WORK OF THE DISTRICT LEAGUE ON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

A Fine Talk Marked the Opening Session—Who the Leaguers Are and Where They Come From.

A very enthusiastic meeting marked the opening session of the Maryville District Epworth League Convention which convened in the auditorium of the First M. E. Church Friday night. A large number of delegates arrived Friday and it is probable that almost a hundred will have checked in to the reception committee by Saturday noon.

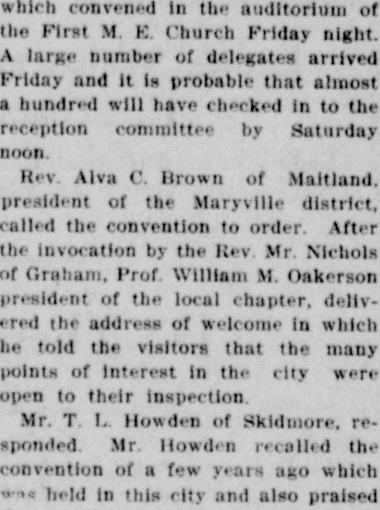
Rev. Alva C. Brown of Maitland, president of the Maryville district, called the convention to order. After the invocation by the Rev. Mr. Nichols of Graham, Prof. William M. Oakerson president of the local chapter, delivered the address of welcome in which he told the visitors that the many points of interest in the city were open to their inspection.

Mr. T. L. Howden of Skidmore, responded. Mr. Howden recalled the convention of a few years ago which was held in this city and also praised the excellent and royal manner in which the visitors were entertained.

Miss Lucile Airy of this city gave a piano number, Sinding's "Rustle of Spring," after which President Brown introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. C. J. English of Cameron, who spoke on the subject of "Human Klondikes." The theme of this excellent talk was how, when and where to achieve success. The Cameron minster is a very forceful speaker. He possesses a rich storehouse of experiences from which to draw his illustrations.

Saturday Morning Session.

The most interesting features of the Saturday morning session were the addresses of Rev. R. R. Moser of Blanchard, and Dr. Agnes Edmunds, a missionary to China. Rev. Moser's subject was: "Let Your Light Shine" and he discussed the work that should be accomplished by Christian young people. Dr. Edmunds spoke of the condition of the people of China and the good that was being accomplished by the missionaries.



REV. A. C. BROWN.
Re-elected President of District League Association.

A business meeting followed the addresses and the report of the local chapters showed that some very good work is being accomplished by the leagues throughout the district.

The following officers elected Saturday afternoon:

Rev. Alva C. Brown, Maitland, President.

Miss Bessie Robinson, Westboro, secretary.

Mr. Harry D. Fay, Tarkio, treasurer.

Rev. L. L. Smith, Fillmore, first vice-president.

Miss Mabel Corken, Burlington Junction, second vice-president.

Miss Nellie Wray, Maryville, third vice-president.

Barnard—Miss Blanche Stalling,

WILL TELL STORIES

A NEW FEATURE AT LIBRARY WILL BE TAKEN UP JUNE 11.

MISS ALBERT IN CHARGE

Children of Maryville Will Be Entertained and Instructed One Day Each Week.

Owing to the dismantled state of the basement rooms of the public library, Miss Ada Albert cannot begin her "Story Telling" to the children of Maryville before a week from the coming Tuesday. It will require that much time to clean and make the rooms ready for her work.

This announcement is made so that all the children and their mothers who have been anxiously inquiring about the matter, may know just how much longer they will have to wait. Miss Albert is planning some nice things for the little folks of Maryville in her weekly stories, which she expects to give every Tuesday.

Each "story telling day" will be devoted to the writings of some author. There will be "Eugene Field Day," and "Longfellow Day," and—but there! We mustn't tell any more about it. We promised not to.

WAS NINETY YEARS OLD.

Aged Father of M. H. Pearson Died Friday Afternoon—Funeral Saturday.

William Madison Pearson, who had made his home with his son, M. H. Pearson and family, for many years, died at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Pearson home at end of South Walnut street. His death was due to a general decline from old age. He was born in Kentucky and was 90 years, 1 month and 25 days old, at the time of his death.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence, conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the Christian Church. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

Mr. Pearson is survived by his wife and three sons, M. H. Pearson of this city; Charles Pearson of Modesto, California; and one son living in Oklahoma. Had Mr. Pearson lived until the middle of June, he and Mrs. Pearson would have celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary.

NOT A GOOD DAY FOR FLIES.

Mayor Robey Said Saturday Afternoon Only Five Flies Had Been Sent In—Expect More by Evening.

Fly Day in Maryville Saturday was not much of a success on account of the cool weather and rain. Up to two o'clock this afternoon, only five flies had been delivered to Mayor Robey, but he said that many of the boys were working and would probably turn up with their flies by six o'clock this evening.

A GOOD ENROLLMENT.

At Noon Saturday, There Were 355 Registered for the Summer Term.

According to Registrar Rickenbrode Saturday noon, 355 had enrolled for the Normal summer term. This is considered the high water mark for the school. As the term only opened Wednesday, many more will come in next week and also for the special term of forty-five days. The enrollment is expected to go over the 500 mark.

Will See Shakespearean Plays.

The officers of the Shakespearean department of the Twentieth Century club desires the attendance of all the ladies of the club, especially of their department, at the Empire theatre Monday night when two Shakespearean plays the department will study the coming year, "Hamlet" and Othello," will be presented, also two other plays they have studied, "Macbeth" and "The Merchant of Venice." The pictures, the ladies believe, will be a decided help toward securing the right interpretation of these plays.

Mrs. J. Arthur Wray, Hostess.

The Womans' Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. J. Arthur Wray Friday afternoon in its monthly meeting. Mrs. John C. Curfman gave an excellent paper on "Race Problems in the United States," which was discussed by all. After the reading by Mrs. Gladys McClarnon of Bishop McIntyre's poem, "The Least of These," Miss Mary Evans played a cornet solo, "Sweet Evening Star," by Wagner. During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Wray, Mrs. Alice Perrin and Miss Evans.

"Shower" for Miss Bonewitz.

Miss Jennie Garrett entertained with a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Lella Bonewitz Friday evening, and was assisted by her sisters, Miss Lou Garrett and Mrs. Frank L. Garrett. Progressive hearts were played and a delicious three-course luncheon served. The arrival of the expressman with a huge white box, tied with broad white ribbons, for Miss Bonewitz, who is receiving much attention these days from her friends because of the near approach of her wedding day, was the beginning of the most interesting and entertaining part of the evening. The box contained a useful and beautiful gift from each one present, with an appropriate verse attached, which the bride-to-be was required to read to the guests. Some of the verses were exceedingly clever and there was not a dull or prosy verse among them. The guests were: Miss Bonewitz, Miss Edna Bonewitz, Miss Katherine Turner, Miss Mabel Todd, Miss Della Grems, Miss Golda Airy, Miss Neva Airy, Miss Stella Q. Smith, Miss Jessie Mutz, Miss Grace Langan, Miss Georgia Custer, Miss Lou Garrett, Mrs. Frank Garrett and the hostess.

A Line on County Demonstrators.

Pettis county, Missouri, anticipated the plan for county demonstrators in farming by beginning the crop season with one of its own. A line on the probable value of such an official may be gained from this extract from a recent report from that county:

A few years ago the only race in this season was as to who could get done planting first. The game in Pettis county seems to have changed, and now it is a race to see who can get his seedbed in the finest shape.

I must say that I never saw better work done. Only in rare cases do bad clods appear. Some seem as yet not to have caught the idea. Most of the corn fields are like gardens. This is certainly wise, as it means much easier and better work from now on.

It is evident that if the seed planted grows something of a corn crop is sure, for when men prepare such seedbeds as we find in Pettis county these same men will do the rest of the work ahead as it should be done.

There were only a few fields, comparitively, where the ground was not disked ahead of the plow. Then most of them were harrowed and disked and harrowed again.

A FORECAST BY W. J. BRYAN.

We have now approached near enough to the republican national convention to forecast the action of that body. Ex-President Roosevelt will, apparently, have a majority of the northern states, while President Taft seems likely to have a majority of the convention—including the southern delegates, who represent merely patronage and boodle. Mr. Roosevelt has been careful to arrange for contesting delegates from the south—this was the first indication of his intention to bolt. With a majority of the northern delegates he is in position to have a convention of his own in case his contesting delegates are refused admission.

The conclusion, therefore, is that Mr. Roosevelt will be the nominee of the regular convention or the nominee of a bolting convention. Get ready for his candidacy—he is quite sure to run.

Can Roosevelt be defeated? Yes, by any good progressive. A progressive will hold the democratic vote and the republicans who oppose a third term will do the rest. Mr. Clark and Mr. Wilson are the leading progressive candidates—either one of them can defeat Roosevelt. The country will never have a president for a third term.—The Commoner.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce Martin H. Borrusch of Polk township is a candidate for the nomination of sheriff of Nodaway county, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the August primary.

A SINGLE TERM.

There are a few who object to the proposed amendment limiting the president to a single term and the chief objection advanced is that a president may become indifferent to the wishes of the public if he is not a candidate for re-election. This is a very shallow argument and would apply to the second term under the two-term limit.

Shall we re-elect presidents continuously in order to keep them sensitive to public opinion? The presidency is usually given as a reward for services performed in the senate, house or in some state office, so that the unworthy are sifted out. Surely, the desire to earn an honorable place in history ought to be sufficient to bring out the best that is in a man. There is more to be feared from the misuse of patronage than from indifference to obligations and to the wishes of the people. One term is enough—one term of four years is preferable but a single term of six years would be better than two four-year terms. Now is the time to push the single term amendment.—Bryan's Commoner.

MEANING OF A REAL MAN.

Magazine Writer Defines What Constitutes the Real Article.

Man is an animal with a desire to lead an active, healthy, natural life. I don't care where he came from. I'm mighty interested in what he's doing, and if one lives adjacent to him for a year or two it ain't hard to tell which place he's goin' to, says Bob McLean in a popular magazine.

A real man ought to have an appetite for three good square meals a day, but he don't deserve 'em if he doesn't put in eight good hard hours work every day in the week except one—Sunday. He oughtn't to have a blessed thing to do with a lot of these new fangled notions about religion. He ought to worship something real. I prefer God. The God my old fashioned mother told me about.

The right kind of a man ought to be always burning up with a desire to take hold of something that most everybody says won't go, and make it a go. He ought to have common sense enough to keep his mouth shut when he knows blame well he has no business buttin' in, and hoss sense enough to rip his tongue loose against the evils of his neighborhood. If he inherits the hankerin' for whiskey he ought to make it the one solemn duty of his life to get home the minute his marketin's done; and if he don't inherit the desire he has no more business thinkin' he'd like to have a drink than some of our modern statesmen have any business meddlin' with the tariff.

His education ought to consist in knowin' how to handle the fire for the general manager on a cold morning, how to prescribe for the neighbor's prize rooster that's wheezy, how to milk six cows without any cussin,' how to fondle and pet a colt that can kick shavins out of an inch and a half sugar board into submissiveness, go to town without getting struck with the cars or one 'o them lightening gas buggies, and come home sober and early enough to lead the prayer meetin' in the evening. He ought to be the head of a table that's surrounded by six or eight healthy children, at least two of 'em girls that's learned to bake good bread and cut it right and carry it to the table instead of mother. He ought to be able to play the old fashioned kind of a piano, quote scripture, mend his own harness, believe in hot and cold water in the house, vote for the candidate that's straight instead of the straight ticket, and boost good roads and good schools.

Your real man is neither rich nor poor, fat nor thin, an easy mark nor an old stingy moss back, and when you talk to him you can't say that it's his looks, his money or his family pedigree that makes him what he is, but that he's just a real man. And best of all, the folks that has to live under the same roof with him say he's just the best daddy and husband that American soil can produce. Such a man is the pride of his home, a blessing to any community, the hope of the nation and the back bone of the universe, and—and you'll find him on the farm.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Elictric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Orear-Henry Drug Co.

THREE SPEED TRANSMISSION

The only way to appreciate the difference between a three speed car and a two speed car is to test them in sand, or mud. It is like one man said: "I drove a two speed car ten miles in sand and the next day my leg was so sore I had to walk on crutches. No push ahead speeds for me." If you want a real automobile get a three speed transmission.

FOUR EXPLOSIONS STARTLE FRISCO

Saloons and Poolrooms Victims of Dynamite Bombs.

DOWNTOWN DISTRICT IS SHAKEN

All Occurred at Time When No One Was in Buildings—Similar to Series of Chicago Outrages—People Panic Stricken.

San Francisco, June 1.—Four heavy explosions shook the downtown district of San Francisco. One was at Tom Corbett's pool room and saloon, Fourth and Stevenson streets, and another at Broyer's saloon, 615 Stevenson.

No one was hurt in any of the explosions. Both Corbett's and Broyer's are small wooden houses in the cheap downtown district known as "South of Market street."

Detective Dinan and several policemen had hardly began an investigation at Broyer's plant before Corbett's place was wrecked.

Fortunately no one was in the building at the time, and it was stated by the proprietors that there was no money in their pool room safes.

At Corbett's, the bomb had been tossed through a window pane broken to permit its entrance. It lay there sizzling from its fuse before anyone realized what it was.

At Broyer's the bomb was tied to the front door knob.

Others While Police Investigate.

While the police were investigating the first two explosions, a third was heard. After some search it was found to have been on the opposite side of Market street in the bucket shop of Moss & Company.

Recently the store room has been cut up into small miscellaneous brokerage offices, many of which are untenanted, and all of which were unoccupied at the time of the explosion. The bomb was tossed onto the roof of the store room and tore an open hole, but did no other damage.

At 2 o'clock it was reported a fourth explosion had occurred.

Tom Corbett is a brother of James J. Corbett, and became known in sporting circles as betting commissioner in the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno.

Picture Show Crowd Frightened.

The explosions, recalling, in their mystery and violence those which wrecked many saloons and pool rooms in Chicago for a series of years, astounded the local police department. The first two occurred as a crowd swarmed from a 10-cent moving picture and vaudeville show across the street from Corbett's.

The chattering throng was turned into a frightened herd, fearing the unknown, and a panic-stricken flight ensued. The police, in their first survey, could learn of no one injured in the stampede.

Stevenson street is a narrow thoroughfare paralleling Market street, the main artery of the city, and running just behind the Palace hotel. It virtually is deserted after nightfall.

EXCITED OVER DIAMOND FIND

Alleged Discovery in Canada Causes Expedition to Start After Riches.

Ottawa, June 1.—Dispatches from Ungava, the great district north of Old Quebec, announce the discovery of diamond deposits, which may prove extensive enough for commercial exploitation. A prospecting expedition from Ottawa and Montreal is now on its way north to make a complete survey. The prospectors are accompanied by four Indian guides and are carrying four tons of supplies. Samples of the finds have been sent to New York and it is said have been favorably reported on by the experts.

Jumped From High Bridge.

Springfield, Mo., June 1.—James McDonald of Topeka removed a part of his clothing and plunged head first from a high railroad bridge into Wilson creek, 20 miles from here. The body was found by farmers. Among his personal effects were lodge receipts from the Topeka lodge of Moose and the Lawrence, Kan., lodge of Eagles.

Cut Off Her Hand.

Seattle, Wash., June 1.—Under the wreckage of Clifford Turpin's airship, which crashed into the grandstand at the Meadows race track, the police found a woman's left hand. The hand was gloved and on the third finger were several rings. So far the police have been unable to find any trace of the woman.

GOOD ROAD TALK DREW CROWDS

NORTH MISSOURI HIGHWAY IS DEDICATED.

Farmers and Families Greet Governor's Party all Along Route and Crowd the Towns.

Richmond, Mo., June 1.—"You cannot build good roads by meaning well feebly. You must mean well with sufficient enthusiasm to vote bonds to make a permanent improved road over which you can bring your crops to market 365 days in the year."

That was the message Gov. Hadley had to give hundreds of farmers of north central Missouri who gathered at the stopping points on the north state highway tour to hear him speak. It was a great day for the tour and a large crowd was out to greet the party of motorists who were out to preach the gospel of full wagon bed roads. The first stop was at Liberty. Standing on the steps of the court house Gov. Hadley addressed a crowd of several hundred.

Thirty motor cars escorted the good roads tourists into Excelsior Springs. The town was decorated with flags and bunting for the occasion. A band greeted the tourists as they came in. Gov. Hadley here told of his plans for using convicts in the permanent roads in Missouri. He explained the state law which had been passed as a preliminary step to the use of convict labor on the roads.

At Excelsior Springs ex-Senator John F. Morton and a party of 30 motorists from Richmond and Hardin joined the party. At every farmhouse along the road between Excelsior Springs and Richmond the farmers' families stood at their gates to wave a greeting to the speeding motorists. At Rayville a huge banner hung over the road. "We're for good roads, but against the single tax."

The north Missouri cross state highway was formally dedicated at Moberly by Gov. Hadley, Congressman W. P. Borland and the state board of agriculture, who constitute the state highway commission.

BERRIES GIVEN RIGHT-OF-WAY

MISSOURI PASSENGER TRAINS ARE SIDE-TRACKED.

Ozark Crop Moving in Trainloads—Ripening Too Fast for Pickers.

Carthage, Mo., June 1.—The Ozark country is submerged in a blood-red deluge of strawberries which threatens to suspend all other business operations and has already revolutionized society. Women who have spent the winter winning bridge prizes and presiding over clubs, are out in the strawberry patches, working early and late to acquire the title of picking champion and a real "summer girl" complexion.

With an unprecedentel crop of berries, every grower in southern Missouri is frantically appealing to people of all classes to go into the berry picking business, but there is little probability of saving all of the crop.

The Kansas City Southern, Frisco and Missouri Pacific railroads are giving berry trains the right of way over passenger service and special berry trains of as many as 20 cars are being sent north on fast schedules.

The recently organized Carthage Strawberry Growers' association, now in its first season sends carloads to Chicago and for the past three days there has been a night and day force working at the loading sheds while the pickers are afield before sun-up and continue in the patches until it is too dark to see the berries.

With season just opening up, over 30,000 crates of the finest berries ever raised in Missouri have been shipped from the Neosho district.

It is certain now that the Ozark district is to have quite a few new automobiles this fall, as strawberry money is just as good as Kansas wheat money when it comes to buying cars.

BARRED A RAILROAD FROM TOWN

Alton Trains Not Allowed to Enter Peoria, Ill.—Serious Results Feared.

Peoria, Ill., June 1.—Charging nonpayment of $30,000 terminal rental, the Peoria & Pekin Union barred the Chicago & Alton railway from using the local passenger station and frieght yards. Ten days ago notice was served on the Alton that the rent must be paid or it would be shut out. No attention was given the order. At midnight the tower operator at Pekin on the Springfield division and Washington on the Chicago division was ordered to prevent Alton trains from proceeding toward Peoria. Serious complications may follow as some of the outbound trains had United States mail aboard.

Washington, June 1.—By the decisive vote of 45 to 11 the senate passed the house bill extending the eight hour principle to contracts involving labor on government work.

GOMEZ SAYS LET MARINES LAND

Is Willing for Americans in Cuba to Guard Foreigners.

CUBANS PURSUING INSURGENTS

Rumor of Battle in Oriente Cannot be Confirmed—Iron Plant Attacked But Assailants Driven Off.

Havana, June 1.—President Gomez telegraphed Gen. Monteagudo, the commander-in-chief of the Cuban army, who is at the scene of the hostilities in the province of Oriente, stating that the general might permit American marines to land on Cuban soil to guard foreign property. The dispatch added that the Cuban forces then might retire from guarding such places and devote themselves to pursuing the insurgents.

The newspapers during the afternoon published extra editions saying a fight had taken place in Oriente province and that 100 rebels had been killed. No confirmation of this story is obtainable from government sources.

The extras also say that the United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie has landed marines at Daiquird. This latter statement, however, is improbable.

Mine Property Attacked.

Interest in Havana centered on the question whether the United States gunboat Paducah would land marines at Daiquiri to protect the property of the Spanish-American Iron company.

The American legation received advices from Daiquiri that the plant of the iron company had been attacked, but that its assailants were held in check by 40 guards, who later were re-inforced by 100 other men. This combined force drove off the insurgents. On the arrival of the Paducah the fighting was over and apparently there was no necessity for extending the aid of American marines.

Paducah on Watch.

Later in the day Col. Marti, chief of staff of the Cuban army, and Lieut. Col. Consuegra sailed from Santiago on the gunboat Hatuey for Daiquiri to explain to the commander of the Paducah the situation on shore and to inform him that there was no necessity for landing American forces. It is understood here, however, that the Paducah will remain on watch off Daiquiri.

A rumor was current in Havana at night that the negroes in the capital intend to rise, but apparently there was no basis for it. No extraordinary police protection was ordered.

WABASH EMPLOYS A "WATER DOCTOR"

Newly Appointed Official Will See That The Wabash Locomotives Drink Nothing But "Pure" Water.

"He has a stomach of iron" can no longer mean that a man may eat anything without fear of indigestion; for it seems that even stomachs of iron are thus afflicted.

Mr. W. A. Pownall, the newly appointed Water Inspector of the Wabash, says that locomotives have persistent attacks of "dyspepsia,"—and it is costing the railroads so much money that it has been put up to Mr. Pownall to work a "cure."

It seems that all waters have more or less of two kinds of mineral salts—"incrusting salts" and "alkali salts," as Mr. Pownall terms them. These salts clog up the boiler very quickly and make it necessary to have the boiler "blown off" frequently, and now and then even taken out of service and washed. Both the blow-outs and the lay-offs mean a loss of money—the amount of which the railroads have now figured almost exactly.

By the liberal use of soda ash, through certain chemical processes, these "salts" can be practically eliminated from the water. However, as the waters vary at different points, the treatment must also vary; but the Wabash purposes to have the water at every point "cured" so that it will be exactly suited to locomotive consumption.

The cost of the treatment is about $17 per engine per year; but it is estimated that the saving on each engine because of the use of "cured" water will amount to over $400 per year. When it is realized that the Wabash has several hundred engines in service, it can be seen that a "water doctor" is a mighty handy official to have around; also a good investment.

Not only will the Wabash be benefited by the study of the local water conditions over its entire system, but industrial plants along the Wabash lines will be able to take advantage of Mr. Pownall's researches and thereby save themselves thousands of dollars annually in wear and tear to their equipment.

LIVERYMEN QUIT THE BUSINESS

Kansas Stables all Closing Because of Popularity of Motor Cars.

Hiawatha, Kan., June 1.—The motor car has superseded the horse to a large extent in this part of the country. Hiawatha's last livery barn has just been closed and the business turned over to the four garages in this town. At Falls City, Neb., a dozen miles to the north, livery stock has been disposed of. Next Saturday the only livery stable at Everest will be closed.

A straggling livery in one or two small towns is all that is left, and the motor car is depended upon, rain or shine, by traveling men who "make" dozens of towns in a day by road.

WAITERS' STRIKE GAINS STRENGTH

Four Thousand Hotel and Restaurant Employes Already Out.

OTHER CITIES MAY BE INVOLVED

Mob of Strikers Displaced by Police—Hotels Recruiting College Boys and Negroes From South.

New York, June 1.—The addition of 1,000 strikers to the ranks, bringing the total to 4,000, and a demonstration marked with disorder on Fifth avenue were the night's features of the waiter's strike. The effort of the International Hotel Workers' union to enforce recognition of the organization and to obtain increases in wages and improvements in working conditions for employes in the kitchens and dining rooms of the thousands of New York eating places is gaining strength.

The 30 hotels and restaurants affected by the strike successfully concealed their embarrassment in some instances, but in others the dining rooms had to be closed and restaurant service was concentrated in one room.

Threatens Other Cities.

The hotel men, realizing as they said, that it had come to "a showdown," are mobilizing an army of substitutes, principally from Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities, as well as negroes from southern winter resorts. They declared they would fight to the finish, even though it might be necessary to close some of the places.

Union officials said that they had exhausted only one-third of their power in this city. Additions to the ranks were recorded hourly, and they asserted that negotiations were on looking to the strike of other employes. They declare they expect to bring about practically a complete tieup of the hotel and restaurant business in the city and if necessary to extend the movement to other places.

Marched in Fifth Avenue.

The first notable demonstration of the strike occurred late at night when 400 men marched up Fifth avenue and halted in front of Delmonico's shouting epithets at the waiters there who refused to join them. Policemen with nightsticks drawn cowed the mob and it moved to other hotels where similar tactics were used. Later a mass meeting was held in an opera house, where the stage was placarded with fiery epigrams.

"Dante's Inferno—a kitchen; cooks are dropping dead from heat and overwork," read one; "A dollar fine for a smile; 83 cents a day to support a family," was another.

A list of new places where strikes were declared was read and received with cheers. The list included the Park Avenue, the Majestic, the Herald Square, the Hoffman House, Moquin's two places and the two Bustanoby restaurants.

NEW TIME SYSTEM FOR FRANCE

Parisians Find 1:15 Train Due to Leave at 13:15—Results in Confusion.

Paris, June 1.—To obviate the awkward a. m. and p. m. designations in the railroad and telegraph services, the clocks of both of these utilities were changed today from the familiar 1 to 12 register to numerals running from 1 to 24. The change was made from end to end of France.

In Paris the innovation caused some little confusion. Suburbanites, rushing to the municipal station to catch the popular 1:15, that carries a large majority of Parisians out of town for the Saturday half holiday, found that train scheduled to start fifteen minutes after thirteen. The last train leaves at fifty minutes after twenty-three. It is claimed by officials that the new order of recording time will result in greater accuracy and speed in dispatching both trains and telegrams.

AN UNUSUAL MOTOR ACCIDENT

New York Man Run Over and Killed by His Own Car While Inspecting Engine.

Jamaica, N. Y., June 1.—Herbert J. Holmes, a local business man, is dead here from injuries received when his own motor car ran over him. He was out driving when the engine developed trouble. As he got out of the car another motor thrust him against it. The shock threw in the clutch and the wheels passed over him, causing internal injuries.

Ex-Gov. St. John is Better.

Olathe, Kan., June 1.—The condition of ex-Gov. John P. St. John, who is critically ill at his home here, shows a slight improvement. He has little fever, while usually his temperature has been 103 or 104. He has had no convulsions for more than 24 hours.

TACTFUL VOTER WAS THIS

Simple Peasant Cast His Ballot to Accompaniment of Delicious Bit of Humor.

The simple people of Alsace, who retain in their hearts a strong love for France at the same time that they are desirous not to offend their German rulers too much, frequently have a hard time of it when they are brought to the ballot box to vote for representatives in the German parliament.

In one election in a certain Alsatian district the two candidates were Kable, an Alsatian of French sympathies, who had protested against the annexation after the war of 1870, and a German. On election day a peasant came to the polling place, which was presided over by a German official. The peasant had in one hand a ticket on which was printed the name of Kable, and in the other a ticket bearing the name of the German candidate.

"Mein Herr," he said to the German election official, "will you tell me which of these tickets is the better one?"

The officer looked at them. "Why, this is much preferable," said he, indicating the German's ticket.

"Ah, I thank you," answered the peasant. "I will keep it next my heart." He folded it carefully and put it inside his coat. "As for this other, then," said he, with an air of putting it away from him as an unworthy thing, "I will leave it here." And he put the Kable ticket in the ballot box.

HER LUCK NOT ALL DESERVED

Printed Prayer Responsible for Return of Pocketbook Only There by Accident.

She had been paying visits most of the afternoon, and on reaching home and putting away her wraps she discovered that her cardcase was missing. In it had been a dollar or two, her cards and a certified check for $200, which she had intended to deposit, but had been too late for her bank.

"Heavens," she exclaimed, "shall I ever see it again?" and sat down in her despair to think over everywhere she had been and might have left it. Suddenly the telephone bell rang.

"Are you Miss Blank, and have you lost anything?" inquired the person at the other end.

"Yes; I have just discovered the loss of my cardcase."

"What was in it?" said the voice.

"My cards, some money, a certified check for $200, and, oh, yes! a little prayer on a slip of paper. Did you see that?"

"Yes," said the voice; 'I picked the case up. And just let me tell you that it was that prayer that has brought your property back to you."

The cardcase owner heaved a sigh of relief and thought how lucky it was for her that a Catholic friend had slipped the little printed prayer into her cardcase last summer.

RECOGNITION OF THE OCCULT

Even Its Enemies Are Willing to Grant That the Belief Has a Foundation in Fact.

The mysterious, the secret, and the unknown have ever exercised a powerful attraction over the human mind, and the present craze for what we may designate cocmprehensively as occult research is no new thing. But it cannot be denied that, apart from the merely superficial side, which naturally fascinates the empty-headed, the frivolous, or the ignorant, there are aspects of occultism which make a very deep appeal to the more intellectual and spiritual among us. Whether this be a good sign or not, it is not our intention to inquire; but it is curious to note the grounds upon which its bitterest opponents base their objections to occultism in general. We need not trouble about the superior or matter-of-fact persons who, without the slightest inquiry, smile at such "superstitions," for no man has a right to sneer at another's beliefs, unless he can prove that other to be wrong. But the real enemies of occult science are those who, fully admitting the objective reality of occult experiences, hold that they are necessarily evil and harmful in themselves. On this point, again, we should not care to express an opinion, but it is clearly a remarkable fact that fancies which have for so many generations been looked upon as mere superstitions and old wives' tales should now be acknowledged by so many intelligent and thinking individuals as at least resting upon some foundation of fact. Who could have predicted such a tremendous reversal of opinion concerning these matetrs fifty years ago?—London Globe.

ANOTHER SIDE TO THE CASE

Just a Few Things Elderly Man Overlooked in His Indictment of Lazy Housewives.

Said the elderly man in the street car: "One thing that runs up the cost of living is the laziness of the average woman. She's too lazy to carry bundles home from the stores. Everything she buys, from a spool of thread up, she asks to have delivered, and the cost of the delivering adds 10 per cent to the cost of every article. Now, my wife is different from the common run. Every week day in the year she goes to the market with a big basket, does her own buying and carries the stuff home herself. That's more than your wife does, I'll bet."

Said the younger man:

"Does your wife do her own housework?"

"No, we keep a girl."

"Has your wife got a houseful of children to care for?"

"No, we only have a tomcat."

"Does your wife have to go to market in an overcrowded street car?"

"No, she has her limousine."

"My wife doesn't own a limousine, she has a houseful of children to care for, and she does her own work. Under the circumstances I don't see that my wife isn't just as much of a woman as yours, even if she doesn't get down town very often."

"You needn't get cross about it," retorted the elderly man.

"I'm not cross," said the younger man. "Only I don't like to hear woman libeled."

Eyes of Night Prowlers.

Many creatures are noctambulists. Some have eyes specially adapted to the conditions of the night, among them cats, night birds and night butterflies. In the eyes of night animals the ends of the optic nerve are divided into about 120,000,000 cylindrical fibers and 60,000 conical fibers. According to Von Kries, the conical fibers perceive dark colors. Many animals see clearly in the dark because in their eyes cylindrical and conical fibers are uniformly intermingled.

The horse follows the road, however dark the night; the owl sees dark things better than he sees light things; therefore, it is probable that the cylindrical fibers of his optic nerves are either more numerous or more powerful than the conical fibers. —Harper's Weekly.

Another Brand.

He suddenly put his hand in his waistcoat pocket and drew out three broken cigars.

Then he looked at his best girl with a forgiving smile.

"Flor de King Alfonsos," he airily said. "Fifty dollars a hundred. But who cares?"

"Let me see them," said the girl.

She inspected the fragments closely.

"Yes," she quietly announced, "that's the kind papa always buys when he's running for office. I know the odor. Five dollars a thousand. Somebody has fooled you, George."

She was a wise girl and she did not smile.

The Proud Parents.

We have discovered why the parents of the Smart Child are inclined to be unduly proud of its achievements. It is clear enough that they feel that their superior mentality is reflected in the child's accomplishments. And as all children are smart children we have a reason why all parents are proud parents and why they prefer their own miserable progeny to those of other people.

These things ought to be excused in a doting mother, but we have known a proud father to break up the social session after the lodge meeting.—Minneapolis Journal.

Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicines, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."

DAILY DEMOCRAT FORUM

(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 4. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1912. NO. 312.

IS OF GREAT VALUE

DR. TAYLOR EMPHASIZES IMPORTANCE OF CONFERENCE.

THE LADIES ARE INVITED

Ample Provision Made for Entertaining the People and the Normal Building to be Open to Them.

The Rural Community Life Conference to be held at the Normal auditorium next Wednesday, promises to be a most successful affair. The following is a statement issued Saturday by President Taylor of the Normal:

To Editor of Democrat-Forum: May I call special attention of our people of Nodaway county to the program of the Rural Community Life Conference? I believe it will be readily seen that this program is a very strong and interesting one. Rarely have our people had so good an opportunity to hear so many interesting subjects discussed by leading experts.

I believe that the Conference may be made of great value to this section of the state. This is the busy time for farmers especially, but it will pay them well to give one day to a subject that is possibly of greater moment than any other before the American people. May I urge them to come and bring their wives? There will be ample hitching racks on the Normal campus and provision for spreading lunches. The Normal building will be open for the comfort of all who come. Let us make this day, June the 5th, a signal occasion for the town and for the county and Northwest Missouri.

The Governor will be the guest of all our people at that time and everybody will want to hear him at night on a subject that has engaged much of his attention.

In addition to the good program of speeches throughout the day and evening, there will be interspersed some excellent music. Come and bring your neighbor. With a cordial invitation to all, I am

Very truly yours,
H. K. TAYLOR
President.

LADIES' BAND PLEASED THEM

Veterans Took Off Their Hats and Gave Them Three Rousing Cheers Decoration Day.

The veterans of the G. A. R. and the members of the Womans' Relief Corps, and everybody else, were delighted with the music that was given for the Decoration Day services, both at the Christian Church, where the declamatory contest was held, and in the court house yard, where the cenotaph ceremonies were held. At the church the Maryville Ladies' Band, of which Miss Alma Nash is director, gave one number, a march, and Mrs. F. P. Robinson sang the Star Spangled Banner, both fitting preludes to the declamations given, "Barbara Fritchie," and "Sheridan's Ride" that were given by Miss Meriam Holt, Ernest Moore and Edgar Hull.

At the close of this program the crowd that had filled the church to its capacity, went to the court house yard and listened to one of the best patriotic speeches ever held in Maryville, by Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. Church.

The Ladies' Band gave four National airs, "Hail Columbia," "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," "Red, White and Blue" and "The Star Spangled Banner." By request of the soldiers "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was repeated, after which the soldiers took off their hats and gave the Maryville Ladies' Band three cheers, and the color bearer gave the Old Glory extra waves. He had kept time to the music all the time the girls were playing.

The band was sent to Reuillard's cafe for luncheon after the exercises by the G. A. R. and the Womans' Relief Corps.

On Visit to Brother.

George Hodge of Chicago, arrived in Maryville Saturday morning and is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Walton, living west of Maryville.

BOX CAR BROKEN INTO.

At Conception Junction Friday Night and Shoes and Clothing Were Taken.

A box car on the sidetrack of the Chicago Great Western was broken into Friday night at Conception Junction and several boxes of goods were broken into. Several pairs of shoes and some clothing were taken, and evidently, the party or parties, sorted the goods out, as clothing and shoes were scattered all over the car. The goods were for the Costello Mercantile Co., and the Ritchie store at the Junction.

Many robberies of box cars have taken place at Conception Junction and it looks as if the best way to check it, is to have a night watchman in the yards.

County Court Monday.

The county court will meet Monday in regular session. There is not much business to come up. Several road cases will be called. The court will probably make their annual trip to the asylum at St. Joseph to see if the county patients are taken care of.

OPENING SESSIONS

WORK OF THE DISTRICT LEAGUE ON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

A Fine Talk Marked the Opening Session—Who the Leaguers Are and Where They Come From.

A very enthusiastic meeting marked the opening session of the Maryville District Epworth League Convention which convened in the auditorium of the First M. E. Church Friday night. A large number of delegates arrived Friday and it is probable that almost a hundred will have checked in to the reception committee by Saturday noon.

Rev. Alva C. Brown of Maitland, president of the Maryville district, called the convention to order. After the invocation by the Rev. Mr. Nichols of Graham, Prof. William M. Oakerson president of the local chapter, delivered the address of welcome in which he told the visitors that the many points of interest in the city were open to their inspection.

Mr. T. L. Howden of Skidmore, responded. Mr. Howden recalled the convention of a few years ago which was held in this city and also praised the excellent and royal manner in which the visitors were entertained.

Miss Lucile Airy of this city gave a piano number, Sinding's "Rustle of Spring," after which President Brown introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. C. J. English of Cameron, who spoke on the subject of "Human Klondikes." The theme of this excellent talk was how, when and where to achieve success. The Cameron minster is a very forceful speaker. He possesses a rich storehouse of experiences from which to draw his illustrations.

Saturday Morning Session.

The most interesting features of the Saturday morning session were the addresses of Rev. R. R. Moser of Blanchard, and Dr. Agnes Edmunds, a missionary to China. Rev. Moser's subject was: "Let Your Light Shine" and he discussed the work that should be accomplished by Christian young people. Dr. Edmunds spoke of the condition of the people of China and the good that was being accomplished by the missionaries.

REV. A. C. BROWN.
Re-elected President of District League Association.

A business meeting followed the addresses and the report of the local chapters showed that some very good work is being accomplished by the leagues throughout the district.

The following officers elected Saturday afternoon:

Rev. Alva C. Brown, Maitland, President.

Miss Bessie Robinson, Westboro, secretary.

Mr. Harry D. Fay, Tarkio, treasurer.

Rev. L. L. Smith, Fillmore, first vice-president.

WILL TELL STORIES

A NEW FEATURE AT LIBRARY WILL BE TAKEN UP JUNE 11.

MISS ALBERT IN CHARGE

Children of Maryville Will Be Entertained and Instructed One Day Each Week.

Owing to the dismantled state of the basement rooms of the public library, Miss Ada Albert cannot begin her "Story Telling" to the children of Maryville before a week from the coming Tuesday. It will require that much time to clean and make the rooms ready for her work.

This announcement is made so that all the children and their mothers who have been anxiously inquiring about the matter, may know just how much longer they will have to wait. Miss Albert is planning some nice things for the little folks of Maryville in her weekly stories, which she expects to give every Tuesday.

Each "story telling day" will be devoted to the writings of some author. There will be "Eugene Field Day," and "Longfellow Day," and—but there! We mustn't tell any more about it. We promised not to.

WAS NINETY YEARS OLD.

Aged Father of M. H. Pearson Died Friday Afternoon—Funeral Saturday.

William Madison Pearson, who had made his home with his son, M. H. Pearson and family, for many years, died at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Pearson home at end of South Walnut street. His death was due to a general decline from old age. He was born in Kentucky and was 90 years, 1 month and 25 days old, at the time of his death.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence, conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the Christian Church. Interment in Miriam cemetery.

Mr. Pearson is survived by his wife and three sons, M. H. Pearson of this city; Charles Pearson of Modesto, California; and one son living in Oklahoma. Had Mr. Pearson lived until the middle of June, he and Mrs. Pearson would have celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary.

NOT A GOOD DAY FOR FLIES.

Mayor Robey Said Saturday Afternoon Only Five Flies Had Been Sent In—Expect More by Evening.

Fly Day in Maryville Saturday was not much of a success on account of the cool weather and rain. Up to two o'clock this afternoon, only five flies had been delivered to Mayor Robey, but he said that many of the boys were working and would probably turn up with their flies by six o'clock this evening.

A GOOD ENROLLMENT.

At Noon Saturday, There Were 355 Registered for the Summer Term.

According to Registrar Rickenbrode Saturday noon, 355 had enrolled for the Normal summer term. This is considered the high water mark for the school. As the term only opened Wednesday, many more will come in next week and also for the special term of forty-five days. The enrollment is expected to go over the 500 mark.

The sociability tour of the Maryville automobile club to St. Joseph Sunday has been postponed on account of the condition of the roads. They are to make their first run on a week from Sunday and instead of going to St. Joseph will go to Tarkio.

Miss Hoffman Entertaining.

Miss Dale Hoffman entertained the members of the Hum Drum club informally Saturday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Dean. The club was asked to meet her cousin, Miss Nellie Oyerly of Mound City, who is her guest.

Will See Shakespearean Plays.

The officers of the Shakespearean department of the Twentieth Century club desires the attendance of all the ladies of the club, especially of their department, at the Empire theatre Monday night when two Shakespearean plays the department will study the coming year, "Hamlet" and Othello," will be presented, also two other plays they have studied, "Macbeth" and "The Merchant of Venice." The pictures, the ladies believe, will be a decided help toward securing the right interpretation of these plays.

Mrs. J. Arthur Wray, Hostess.

The Womans' Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. J. Arthur Wray Friday afternoon in its monthly meeting. Mrs. John C. Curfman gave an excellent paper on "Race Problems in the United States," which was discussed by all. After the reading by Mrs. Gladys McClarnon of Bishop McIntyre's poem, "The Least of These," Miss Mary Evans played a cornet solo, "Sweet Evening Star," by Wagner. During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Wray, Mrs. Alice Perrin and Miss Evans.

"Shower" for Miss Bonewitz.

Miss Jennie Garrett entertained with a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Lella Bonewitz Friday evening, and was assisted by her sisters, Miss Lou Garrett and Mrs. Frank L. Garrett. Progressive hearts were played and a delicious three-course luncheon served. The arrival of the expressman with a huge white box, tied with broad white ribbons, for Miss Bonewitz, who is receiving much attention these days from her friends because of the near approach of her wedding day, was the beginning of the most interesting and entertaining part of the evening. The box contained a useful and beautiful gift from each one present, with an appropriate verse attached, which the bride-to-be was required to read to the guests. Some of the verses were exceedingly clever and there was not a dull or prosy verse among them. The guests were: Miss Bonewitz, Miss Edna Bonewitz, Miss Katherine Turner, Miss Mabel Todd, Miss Della Grems, Miss Golda Airy, Miss Neva Airy, Miss Stella Q. Smith, Miss Jessie Mutz, Miss Grace Langan, Miss Georgia Custer, Miss Lou Garrett, Mrs. Frank Garrett and the hostess.

INDENTIFIED THE WATCH.

John Simons in the County Jail Charged With Stealing a Watch from Sheridan Man.

John Simons in the county jail on a charge of grand larceny, having taken brass off the John Cooper automobile at Parnell recently, is now charged with another crime, that of stealing a watch from a printer that worked in the Sheridan Advance office. The watch was indentified Friday and was returned to the printer. Simons did not confess taking it.

A Line on County Demonstrators.

Pettis county, Missouri, anticipated the plan for county demonstrators in farming by beginning the crop season with one of its own. A line on the probable value of such an official may be gained from this extract from a recent report from that county:

A few years ago the only race in this season was as to who could get done planting first. The game in Pettis county seems to have changed, and now it is a race to see who can get his seedbed in the finest shape.

I must say that I never saw better work done. Only in rare cases do bad clods appear. Some seem as yet not to have caught the idea. Most of the corn fields are like gardens. This is certainly wise, as it means much easier and better work from now on.

It is evident that if the seed planted grows something of a corn crop is sure, for when men prepare such seedbeds as we find in Pettis county these same men will do the rest of the work ahead as it should be done.

There were only a few fields, comparitively, where the ground was not disked ahead of the plow. Then most of them were harrowed and disked and harrowed again.

A FORECAST BY W. J. BRYAN.

We have now approached near enough to the republican national convention to forecast the action of that body. Ex-President Roosevelt will, apparently, have a majority of the northern states, while President Taft seems likely to have a majority of the convention—including the southern delegates, who represent merely patronage and boodle. Mr. Roosevelt has been careful to arrange for contesting delegates from the south—this was the first indication of his intention to bolt. With a majority of the northern delegates he is in position to have a convention of his own in case his contesting delegates are refused admission.

The conclusion, therefore, is that Mr. Roosevelt will be the nominee of the regular convention or the nominee of a bolting convention. Get ready for his candidacy—he is quite sure to run.

Can Roosevelt be defeated? Yes, by any good progressive. A progressive will hold the democratic vote and the republicans who oppose a third term will do the rest. Mr. Clark and Mr. Wilson are the leading progressive candidates—either one of them can defeat Roosevelt. The country will never have a president for a third term.—The Commoner.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce Martin H. Borrusch of Polk township is a candidate for the nomination of sheriff of Nodaway county, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the August primary.

A SINGLE TERM.

There are a few who object to the proposed amendment limiting the president to a single term and the chief objection advanced is that a president may become indifferent to the wishes of the public if he is not a candidate for re-election. This is a very shallow argument and would apply to the second term under the two-term limit.

Shall we re-elect presidents continuously in order to keep them sensitive to public opinion? The presidency is usually given as a reward for services performed in the senate, house or in some state office, so that the unworthy are sifted out. Surely, the desire to earn an honorable place in history ought to be sufficient to bring out the best that is in a man. There is more to be feared from the misuse of patronage than from indifference to obligations and to the wishes of the people. One term is enough—one term of four years is preferable but a single term of six years would be better than two four-year terms. Now is the time to push the single term amendment.—Bryan's Commoner.

MEANING OF A REAL MAN.

Magazine Writer Defines What Constitutes the Real Article.

Man is an animal with a desire to lead an active, healthy, natural life. I don't care where he came from. I'm mighty interested in what he's doing, and if one lives adjacent to him for a year or two it ain't hard to tell which place he's goin' to, says Bob McLean in a popular magazine.

A real man ought to have an appetite for three good square meals a day, but he don't deserve 'em if he doesn't put in eight good hard hours work every day in the week except one—Sunday. He oughtn't to have a blessed thing to do with a lot of these new fangled notions about religion. He ought to worship something real. I prefer God. The God my old fashioned mother told me about.

The right kind of a man ought to be always burning up with a desire to take hold of something that most everybody says won't go, and make it a go. He ought to have common sense enough to keep his mouth shut when he knows blame well he has no business buttin' in, and hoss sense enough to rip his tongue loose against the evils of his neighborhood. If he inherits the hankerin' for whiskey he ought to make it the one solemn duty of his life to get home the minute his marketin's done; and if he don't inherit the desire he has no more business thinkin' he'd like to have a drink than some of our modern statesmen have any business meddlin' with the tariff.

His education ought to consist in knowin' how to handle the fire for the general manager on a cold morning, how to prescribe for the neighbor's prize rooster that's wheezy, how to milk six cows without any cussin,' how to fondle and pet a colt that can kick shavins out of an inch and a half sugar board into submissiveness, go to town without getting struck with the cars or one 'o them lightening gas buggies, and come home sober and early enough to lead the prayer meetin' in the evening. He ought to be the head of a table that's surrounded by six or eight healthy children, at least two of 'em girls that's learned to bake good bread and cut it right and carry it to the table instead of mother. He ought to be able to play the old fashioned kind of a piano, quote scripture, mend his own harness, believe in hot and cold water in the house, vote for the candidate that's straight instead of the straight ticket, and boost good roads and good schools.

Your real man is neither rich nor poor, fat nor thin, an easy mark nor an old stingy moss back, and when you talk to him you can't say that it's his looks, his money or his family pedigree that makes him what he is, but that he's just a real man. And best of all, the folks that has to live under the same roof with him say he's just the best daddy and husband that American soil can produce. Such a man is the pride of his home, a blessing to any community, the hope of the nation and the back bone of the universe, and—and you'll find him on the farm.

FOUR EXPLOSIONS STARTLE FRISCO

Saloons and Poolrooms Victims of Dynamite Bombs.

DOWNTOWN DISTRICT IS SHAKEN

All Occurred at Time When No One Was in Buildings—Similar to Series of Chicago Outrages—People Panic Stricken.

San Francisco, June 1.—Four heavy explosions shook the downtown district of San Francisco. One was at Tom Corbett's pool room and saloon, Fourth and Stevenson streets, and another at Broyer's saloon, 615 Stevenson.

No one was hurt in any of the explosions. Both Corbett's and Broyer's are small wooden houses in the cheap downtown district known as "South of Market street."

Detective Dinan and several policemen had hardly began an investigation at Broyer's plant before Corbett's place was wrecked.

Fortunately no one was in the building at the time, and it was stated by the proprietors that there was no money in their pool room safes.

At Corbett's, the bomb had been tossed through a window pane broken to permit its entrance. It lay there sizzling from its fuse before anyone realized what it was.

At Broyer's the bomb was tied to the front door knob.

Others While Police Investigate.

While the police were investigating the first two explosions, a third was heard. After some search it was found to have been on the opposite side of Market street in the bucket shop of Moss & Company.

Recently the store room has been cut up into small miscellaneous brokerage offices, many of which are untenanted, and all of which were unoccupied at the time of the explosion. The bomb was tossed onto the roof of the store room and tore an open hole, but did no other damage.

At 2 o'clock it was reported a fourth explosion had occurred.

Tom Corbett is a brother of James J. Corbett, and became known in sporting circles as betting commissioner in the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno.

Picture Show Crowd Frightened.

The explosions, recalling, in their mystery and violence those which wrecked many saloons and pool rooms in Chicago for a series of years, astounded the local police department. The first two occurred as a crowd swarmed from a 10-cent moving picture and vaudeville show across the street from Corbett's.

The chattering throng was turned into a frightened herd, fearing the unknown, and a panic-stricken flight ensued. The police, in their first survey, could learn of no one injured in the stampede.

Stevenson street is a narrow thoroughfare paralleling Market street, the main artery of the city, and running just behind the Palace hotel. It virtually is deserted after nightfall.

EXCITED OVER DIAMOND FIND

Alleged Discovery in Canada Causes Expedition to Start After Riches.

Ottawa, June 1.—Dispatches from Ungava, the great district north of Old Quebec, announce the discovery of diamond deposits, which may prove extensive enough for commercial exploitation. A prospecting expedition from Ottawa and Montreal is now on its way north to make a complete survey. The prospectors are accompanied by four Indian guides and are carrying four tons of supplies. Samples of the finds have been sent to New York and it is said have been favorably reported on by the experts.

Jumped From High Bridge.

Springfield, Mo., June 1.—James McDonald of Topeka removed a part of his clothing and plunged head first from a high railroad bridge into Wilson creek, 20 miles from here. The body was found by farmers. Among his personal effects were lodge receipts from the Topeka lodge of Moose and the Lawrence, Kan., lodge of Eagles.

Cut Off Her Hand.

Seattle, Wash., June 1.—Under the wreckage of Clifford Turpin's airship, which crashed into the grandstand at the Meadows race track, the police found a woman's left hand. The hand was gloved and on the third finger were several rings. So far the police have been unable to find any trace of the woman.

GOOD ROAD TALK DREW CROWDS

NORTH MISSOURI HIGHWAY IS DEDICATED.

Farmers and Families Greet Governor's Party all Along Route and Crowd the Towns.

Richmond, Mo., June 1.—"You cannot build good roads by meaning well feebly. You must mean well with sufficient enthusiasm to vote bonds to make a permanent improved road over which you can bring your crops to market 365 days in the year."

That was the message Gov. Hadley had to give hundreds of farmers of north central Missouri who gathered at the stopping points on the north state highway tour to hear him speak. It was a great day for the tour and a large crowd was out to greet the party of motorists who were out to preach the gospel of full wagon bed roads. The first stop was at Liberty. Standing on the steps of the court house Gov. Hadley addressed a crowd of several hundred.

Thirty motor cars escorted the good roads tourists into Excelsior Springs. The town was decorated with flags and bunting for the occasion. A band greeted the tourists as they came in. Gov. Hadley here told of his plans for using convicts in the permanent roads in Missouri. He explained the state law which had been passed as a preliminary step to the use of convict labor on the roads.

At Excelsior Springs ex-Senator John F. Morton and a party of 30 motorists from Richmond and Hardin joined the party. At every farmhouse along the road between Excelsior Springs and Richmond the farmers' families stood at their gates to wave a greeting to the speeding motorists. At Rayville a huge banner hung over the road. "We're for good roads, but against the single tax."

The north Missouri cross state highway was formally dedicated at Moberly by Gov. Hadley, Congressman W. P. Borland and the state board of agriculture, who constitute the state highway commission.

BERRIES GIVEN RIGHT-OF-WAY

MISSOURI PASSENGER TRAINS ARE SIDE-TRACKED.

Ozark Crop Moving in Trainloads—Ripening Too Fast for Pickers.

Carthage, Mo., June 1.—The Ozark country is submerged in a blood-red deluge of strawberries which threatens to suspend all other business operations and has already revolutionized society. Women who have spent the winter winning bridge prizes and presiding over clubs, are out in the strawberry patches, working early and late to acquire the title of picking champion and a real "summer girl" complexion.

With an unprecedentel crop of berries, every grower in southern Missouri is frantically appealing to people of all classes to go into the berry picking business, but there is little probability of saving all of the crop.

The Kansas City Southern, Frisco and Missouri Pacific railroads are giving berry trains the right of way over passenger service and special berry trains of as many as 20 cars are being sent north on fast schedules.

The recently organized Carthage Strawberry Growers' association, now in its first season sends carloads to Chicago and for the past three days there has been a night and day force working at the loading sheds while the pickers are afield before sun-up and continue in the patches until it is too dark to see the berries.

With season just opening up, over 30,000 crates of the finest berries ever raised in Missouri have been shipped from the Neosho district.

It is certain now that the Ozark district is to have quite a few new automobiles this fall, as strawberry money is just as good as Kansas wheat money when it comes to buying cars.

BARRED A RAILROAD FROM TOWN

Alton Trains Not Allowed to Enter Peoria, Ill.—Serious Results Feared.

Peoria, Ill., June 1.—Charging nonpayment of $30,000 terminal rental, the Peoria & Pekin Union barred the Chicago & Alton railway from using the local passenger station and frieght yards. Ten days ago notice was served on the Alton that the rent must be paid or it would be shut out. No attention was given the order. At midnight the tower operator at Pekin on the Springfield division and Washington on the Chicago division was ordered to prevent Alton trains from proceeding toward Peoria. Serious complications may follow as some of the outbound trains had United States mail aboard.

GOMEZ SAYS LET MARINES LAND

Is Willing for Americans in Cuba to Guard Foreigners.

CUBANS PURSUING INSURGENTS

Rumor of Battle in Oriente Cannot be Confirmed—Iron Plant Attacked But Assailants Driven Off.

Havana, June 1.—President Gomez telegraphed Gen. Monteagudo, the commander-in-chief of the Cuban army, who is at the scene of the hostilities in the province of Oriente, stating that the general might permit American marines to land on Cuban soil to guard foreign property. The dispatch added that the Cuban forces then might retire from guarding such places and devote themselves to pursuing the insurgents.

The newspapers during the afternoon published extra editions saying a fight had taken place in Oriente province and that 100 rebels had been killed. No confirmation of this story is obtainable from government sources.

The extras also say that the United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie has landed marines at Daiquird. This latter statement, however, is improbable.

Mine Property Attacked.

Interest in Havana centered on the question whether the United States gunboat Paducah would land marines at Daiquiri to protect the property of the Spanish-American Iron company.

The American legation received advices from Daiquiri that the plant of the iron company had been attacked, but that its assailants were held in check by 40 guards, who later were re-inforced by 100 other men. This combined force drove off the insurgents. On the arrival of the Paducah the fighting was over and apparently there was no necessity for extending the aid of American marines.

Paducah on Watch.

Later in the day Col. Marti, chief of staff of the Cuban army, and Lieut. Col. Consuegra sailed from Santiago on the gunboat Hatuey for Daiquiri to explain to the commander of the Paducah the situation on shore and to inform him that there was no necessity for landing American forces. It is understood here, however, that the Paducah will remain on watch off Daiquiri.

A rumor was current in Havana at night that the negroes in the capital intend to rise, but apparently there was no basis for it. No extraordinary police protection was ordered.

WABASH EMPLOYS A "WATER DOCTOR"

Newly Appointed Official Will See That The Wabash Locomotives Drink Nothing But "Pure" Water.

"He has a stomach of iron" can no longer mean that a man may eat anything without fear of indigestion; for it seems that even stomachs of iron are thus afflicted.

Mr. W. A. Pownall, the newly appointed Water Inspector of the Wabash, says that locomotives have persistent attacks of "dyspepsia,"—and it is costing the railroads so much money that it has been put up to Mr. Pownall to work a "cure."

It seems that all waters have more or less of two kinds of mineral salts—"incrusting salts" and "alkali salts," as Mr. Pownall terms them. These salts clog up the boiler very quickly and make it necessary to have the boiler "blown off" frequently, and now and then even taken out of service and washed. Both the blow-outs and the lay-offs mean a loss of money—the amount of which the railroads have now figured almost exactly.

By the liberal use of soda ash, through certain chemical processes, these "salts" can be practically eliminated from the water. However, as the waters vary at different points, the treatment must also vary; but the Wabash purposes to have the water at every point "cured" so that it will be exactly suited to locomotive consumption.

The cost of the treatment is about $17 per engine per year; but it is estimated that the saving on each engine because of the use of "cured" water will amount to over $400 per year. When it is realized that the Wabash has several hundred engines in service, it can be seen that a "water doctor" is a mighty handy official to have around; also a good investment.

Not only will the Wabash be benefited by the study of the local water conditions over its entire system, but industrial plants along the Wabash lines will be able to take advantage of Mr. Pownall's researches and thereby save themselves thousands of dollars annually in wear and tear to their equipment.

LIVERYMEN QUIT THE BUSINESS

Kansas Stables all Closing Because of Popularity of Motor Cars.

Hiawatha, Kan., June 1.—The motor car has superseded the horse to a large extent in this part of the country. Hiawatha's last livery barn has just been closed and the business turned over to the four garages in this town. At Falls City, Neb., a dozen miles to the north, livery stock has been disposed of. Next Saturday the only livery stable at Everest will be closed.

A straggling livery in one or two small towns is all that is left, and the motor car is depended upon, rain or shine, by traveling men who "make" dozens of towns in a day by road.

WAITERS' STRIKE GAINS STRENGTH

Four Thousand Hotel and Restaurant Employes Already Out.

OTHER CITIES MAY BE INVOLVED

Mob of Strikers Displaced by Police—Hotels Recruiting College Boys and Negroes From South.

New York, June 1.—The addition of 1,000 strikers to the ranks, bringing the total to 4,000, and a demonstration marked with disorder on Fifth avenue were the night's features of the waiter's strike. The effort of the International Hotel Workers' union to enforce recognition of the organization and to obtain increases in wages and improvements in working conditions for employes in the kitchens and dining rooms of the thousands of New York eating places is gaining strength.

The 30 hotels and restaurants affected by the strike successfully concealed their embarrassment in some instances, but in others the dining rooms had to be closed and restaurant service was concentrated in one room.

Threatens Other Cities.

The hotel men, realizing as they said, that it had come to "a showdown," are mobilizing an army of substitutes, principally from Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities, as well as negroes from southern winter resorts. They declared they would fight to the finish, even though it might be necessary to close some of the places.

Union officials said that they had exhausted only one-third of their power in this city. Additions to the ranks were recorded hourly, and they asserted that negotiations were on looking to the strike of other employes. They declare they expect to bring about practically a complete tieup of the hotel and restaurant business in the city and if necessary to extend the movement to other places.

Marched in Fifth Avenue.

The first notable demonstration of the strike occurred late at night when 400 men marched up Fifth avenue and halted in front of Delmonico's shouting epithets at the waiters there who refused to join them. Policemen with nightsticks drawn cowed the mob and it moved to other hotels where similar tactics were used. Later a mass meeting was held in an opera house, where the stage was placarded with fiery epigrams.

"Dante's Inferno—a kitchen; cooks are dropping dead from heat and overwork," read one; "A dollar fine for a smile; 83 cents a day to support a family," was another.

A list of new places where strikes were declared was read and received with cheers. The list included the Park Avenue, the Majestic, the Herald Square, the Hoffman House, Moquin's two places and the two Bustanoby restaurants.

NEW TIME SYSTEM FOR FRANCE

Parisians Find 1:15 Train Due to Leave at 13:15—Results in Confusion.

Paris, June 1.—To obviate the awkward a. m. and p. m. designations in the railroad and telegraph services, the clocks of both of these utilities were changed today from the familiar 1 to 12 register to numerals running from 1 to 24. The change was made from end to end of France.

In Paris the innovation caused some little confusion. Suburbanites, rushing to the municipal station to catch the popular 1:15, that carries a large majority of Parisians out of town for the Saturday half holiday, found that train scheduled to start fifteen minutes after thirteen. The last train leaves at fifty minutes after twenty-three. It is claimed by officials that the new order of recording time will result in greater accuracy and speed in dispatching both trains and telegrams.

AN UNUSUAL MOTOR ACCIDENT

New York Man Run Over and Killed by His Own Car While Inspecting Engine.

Jamaica, N. Y., June 1.—Herbert J. Holmes, a local business man, is dead here from injuries received when his own motor car ran over him. He was out driving when the engine developed trouble. As he got out of the car another motor thrust him against it. The shock threw in the clutch and the wheels passed over him, causing internal injuries.

TACTFUL VOTER WAS THIS

Simple Peasant Cast His Ballot to Accompaniment of Delicious Bit of Humor.

The simple people of Alsace, who retain in their hearts a strong love for France at the same time that they are desirous not to offend their German rulers too much, frequently have a hard time of it when they are brought to the ballot box to vote for representatives in the German parliament.

In one election in a certain Alsatian district the two candidates were Kable, an Alsatian of French sympathies, who had protested against the annexation after the war of 1870, and a German. On election day a peasant came to the polling place, which was presided over by a German official. The peasant had in one hand a ticket on which was printed the name of Kable, and in the other a ticket bearing the name of the German candidate.

"Mein Herr," he said to the German election official, "will you tell me which of these tickets is the better one?"

The officer looked at them. "Why, this is much preferable," said he, indicating the German's ticket.

"Ah, I thank you," answered the peasant. "I will keep it next my heart." He folded it carefully and put it inside his coat. "As for this other, then," said he, with an air of putting it away from him as an unworthy thing, "I will leave it here." And he put the Kable ticket in the ballot box.

HER LUCK NOT ALL DESERVED

Printed Prayer Responsible for Return of Pocketbook Only There by Accident.

She had been paying visits most of the afternoon, and on reaching home and putting away her wraps she discovered that her cardcase was missing. In it had been a dollar or two, her cards and a certified check for $200, which she had intended to deposit, but had been too late for her bank.

"Heavens," she exclaimed, "shall I ever see it again?" and sat down in her despair to think over everywhere she had been and might have left it. Suddenly the telephone bell rang.

"Are you Miss Blank, and have you lost anything?" inquired the person at the other end.

"Yes; I have just discovered the loss of my cardcase."

"What was in it?" said the voice.

"My cards, some money, a certified check for $200, and, oh, yes! a little prayer on a slip of paper. Did you see that?"

"Yes," said the voice; 'I picked the case up. And just let me tell you that it was that prayer that has brought your property back to you."

The cardcase owner heaved a sigh of relief and thought how lucky it was for her that a Catholic friend had slipped the little printed prayer into her cardcase last summer.

RECOGNITION OF THE OCCULT

Even Its Enemies Are Willing to Grant That the Belief Has a Foundation in Fact.

The mysterious, the secret, and the unknown have ever exercised a powerful attraction over the human mind, and the present craze for what we may designate cocmprehensively as occult research is no new thing. But it cannot be denied that, apart from the merely superficial side, which naturally fascinates the empty-headed, the frivolous, or the ignorant, there are aspects of occultism which make a very deep appeal to the more intellectual and spiritual among us. Whether this be a good sign or not, it is not our intention to inquire; but it is curious to note the grounds upon which its bitterest opponents base their objections to occultism in general. We need not trouble about the superior or matter-of-fact persons who, without the slightest inquiry, smile at such "superstitions," for no man has a right to sneer at another's beliefs, unless he can prove that other to be wrong. But the real enemies of occult science are those who, fully admitting the objective reality of occult experiences, hold that they are necessarily evil and harmful in themselves. On this point, again, we should not care to express an opinion, but it is clearly a remarkable fact that fancies which have for so many generations been looked upon as mere superstitions and old wives' tales should now be acknowledged by so many intelligent and thinking individuals as at least resting upon some foundation of fact. Who could have predicted such a tremendous reversal of opinion concerning these matetrs fifty years ago?—London Globe.

ANOTHER SIDE TO THE CASE

Just a Few Things Elderly Man Overlooked in His Indictment of Lazy Housewives.

Said the elderly man in the street car: "One thing that runs up the cost of living is the laziness of the average woman. She's too lazy to carry bundles home from the stores. Everything she buys, from a spool of thread up, she asks to have delivered, and the cost of the delivering adds 10 per cent to the cost of every article. Now, my wife is different from the common run. Every week day in the year she goes to the market with a big basket, does her own buying and carries the stuff home herself. That's more than your wife does, I'll bet."

Said the younger man:

"Does your wife do her own housework?"

"No, we keep a girl."

"Has your wife got a houseful of children to care for?"

"No, we only have a tomcat."

"Does your wife have to go to market in an overcrowded street car?"

"No, she has her limousine."

"My wife doesn't own a limousine, she has a houseful of children to care for, and she does her own work. Under the circumstances I don't see that my wife isn't just as much of a woman as yours, even if she doesn't get down town very often."

"You needn't get cross about it," retorted the elderly man.

"I'm not cross," said the younger man. "Only I don't like to hear women libeled."

Eyes of Night Prowlers.

Many creatures are noctambulists. Some have eyes specially adapted to the conditions of the night, among them cats, night birds and night butterflies. In the eyes of night animals the ends of the optic nerve are divided into about 120,000,000 cylindrical fibers and 60,000 conical fibers. According to Von Kries, the conical fibers perceive dark colors. Many animals see clearly in the dark because in their eyes cylindrical and conical fibers are uniformly intermingled.

The horse follows the road, however dark the night; the owl sees dark things better than he sees light things; therefore, it is probable that the cylindrical fibers of his optic nerves are either more numerous or more powerful than the conical fibers.—Harper's Weekly.

Another Brand.

He suddenly put his hand in his waistcoat pocket and drew out three broken cigars.

Then he looked at his best girl with a forgiving smile.

"Flor de King Alfonsos," he airily said. "Fifty dollars a hundred. But who cares?"

"Let me see them," said the girl.

She inspected the fragments closely.

"Yes," she quietly announced, "that's the kind papa always buys when he's running for office. I know the odor. Five dollars a thousand. Somebody has fooled you, George."

She was a wise girl and she did not smile.

The Proud Parents.

We have discovered why the parents of the Smart Child are inclined to be unduly proud of its achievements. It is clear enough that they feel that their superior mentality is reflected in the child's accomplishments. And as all children are smart children we have a reason why all parents are proud parents and why they prefer their own miserable progeny to those of other people.

These things ought to be excused in a doting mother, but we have known a proud father to break up the social session after the lodge meeting.—Minneapolis Journal.

HER WEIGHT INCREASED FROM 100 TO 140 POUNDS.

Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicines, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."
